

‘Bus Stop’ 2024 Fundraiser

Bus Projects is excited to present our 2024 Fundraiser Exhibition, featuring the works of more than 110 artists!

This year we are taking a moment to pause and reflect on our past 23 years of operations, while thinking about where we would like to go next as an artist-run-initiative. The title of our fundraiser reflects this thinking, and we have invited artists from our community (both old and new) to be part of this journey.

After a few years of uncertainty and financial volatility, will directly support Bus Projects’ future. All proceeds from the fundraiser will be shared with participating artists and will also go directly to the payment of artist fees and other core operational expenses that are necessary to keep our small 2-person organisation stay afloat.

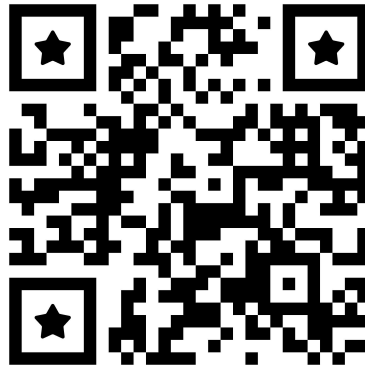

We recognise that while fundraising is essential to keeping our doors open, we are also asking for donations during a time where other more pressing issues require urgent attention. This year, we are also donating 5% from all proceeds raised from the fundraiser to Pay The Rent and Palestine Australia Relief and Action (PARA). We wanted to situate our fundraising efforts within this context.

Raffle Tickets & Events

Bus Projects would like to thank the contribution and generosity of all the participating artists, our volunteers, interns and Board.

We would not of been able to pull together the install, opening event and programs for the fundraiser without the help of Britt Salt, Charlotte Renfrey, Connie Chamber Collective, Daisy, Eric Della Bosca, Imogen Davis, Janelle Low, Jessie Webb, Kenneth Suico, Lady Bijou, Matt Richards, Malcom King, Mechelle Bounpraseuth, Minh An Phạm, Paige Hung, Sophie Tanner, Tabitha Glanville, Tom Stoddard, Viet-My Bui and Zahra Zainal (listed alphabetically).

We would also like to thank the contribution of plinths, shelves, drinks, flowers, tables, chairs (and emotional support) from Little Brunswick Wine Co., Bodriggy Brewing, Heaps Normal, Manzé, FoMS, Counihan Gallery, Centre for Contemporary Photography, Honey Bones Gallery and West Space.
